Marion County Prosecutor's Office to offer free public forums to protect seniors from fraud and abuse

(Indianapolis, Ind.) The Marion County Prosecutor's Office will offer three Power Against Fraud seminars later this month. The seminars are presented by a Marion County Deputy Prosecutor and address topics that include personal safety, identity theft, telemarketing scams, and home improvement fraud.

These events are designed for senior citizens, caregivers, and family members to provide effective strategies to recognize and prevent seniors from becoming victims of fraud and common scams. The presentations are free and open to the public.
